4/8/02 R95-04-043 Rulemaking on the Commission's own motion into competition for local exchange service and

 I95-04-044 Investigation on the Commission's own motion into competition for local exchange service.

Summary: LATE FILED. On April 2, 2002, Melissa Waksman, Director, Regulatory, of XO California, Inc. (XO) talked by telephone with Fassil Fenikile, advisor to Cmmr. Duque. Written material (attached to the notice) was used. Waksman discussed the draft decision (DD) granting the motion of Roseville Telephone Company (Roseville) for an order requiring competitive local exchange carriers (CLECs) with a lower than investment grade bond rating to provide security for the difference between the unbundled network element (UNE) rates adopted by the Commission and the interim unbundled network element prices adopted and subject to true up in D01-02-042. Waksman explained that granting Roseville's motion for a security requirement would create a severe, unnecessary, and legally insupportable burden on CLECs, and as such, would create a significant barrier to competition. Waksman further explained that any issues regarding XO's ability to meet its financial obligations to Roseville are addressed and should be addressed by the billing and deposit provisions of XO's interconnection agreement with Roseville.
